

Tulane University
A.B. Freeman School of Business
Tenure System Faculty (Professor/Associate Professor) in Management Science

The A. B. Freeman School of Business at Tulane University invites applications for a full-time tenure track appointment at the Professor or Associate Professor level in the Management Science department effective July 1, 2018. Salary, teaching load and research support are commensurate with those other major research institutions. Ultimate recruitment for this position is subject to final budgetary approval by the University.

Qualifications

Candidates are expected to hold a Ph.D. in Management Science or a closely related discipline and must qualify for tenure at the Freeman School. Candidates should be recognized leaders in their field with strong research and teaching skills.

We seek candidates who are interested in supporting the growth and development of the junior faculty in the Management Science department. Candidates are also expected to be capable of supporting the implementation and continuing success of the new Master of Business Analytics program.

About the University and School
