

Stern School of Business, New York University
2022-2023 Assistant Professor of Operations Management (full-time, tenure-track)

Location: New York, NY

Open Date: Sep 3, 2021

Deadline: Nov 10, 2021 at 11:59 PM Eastern Time

Description

The Operations Management Group in the Department of Technology, Operations, and Statistics at the Stern School of Business, New York University, invites applications for a tenure-track position at the assistant professor level starting in the 2022-2023 academic year.

Operations Management is a multidisciplinary program at the Stern School. The OM faculty at NYU Stern have diverse interests and expertise, and share a strong commitment to analytical, empirical and field-based research relating to Operations Management. For more information about the Operations Management group at the Stern School, please visit our website.

Qualifications

Applicants are expected to be productive and high-quality researchers. Applications with boundary-spanning interests are encouraged, including interdisciplinary work that intersects with Business Analytics, Computer Science, Economics, Finance, Information Systems, Marketing, Statistics, and Technology Management. Candidates should have a PhD, or candidates must have successfully defended their doctoral dissertation prior to appointment. We expect applicants to be effective in teaching Operations Management or Decision Models courses at the undergraduate and graduate levels, as well as PhD-level courses.
