2021 INFORMS TIMES Best Dissertation Award

The INFORMS Technology, Innovation Management, and Entrepreneurship Section (TIMES) invites submissions to its 2021 INFORMS TIMES Doctoral Dissertation Award Competition sponsored by Lazaridis Institute. Dissertations defended no more than two years prior to March 31, 2021 and all research topics in operations management broadly related to the subjects of technology management, product/process innovation, business model innovation, new product development, and entrepreneurship are eligible. Each dissertation will be judged by a panel of domain experts on its contribution towards the advancement of theory and practice in operations management, technology and innovation management, and entrepreneurship. The finalists will be invited to present their work in a special session at the INFORMS 2021 Annual Meeting, which will take place October 24-27, 2021. The award winner will receive a monetary award and be presented with a plaque at the TIMES business meeting.

Thanks to generous sponsorship by the Lazaridis Institute, the following cash prize will be offered to the award winners:

| One first-place prize: | $800 |
| One second-place prize: | $400 |

Submission Deadline: March 31, 2021

A complete submission must include three documents:
1) A cover page with author-identifying information including:
   a. the title of the dissertation,
   b. the entrant's name, current and future affiliation(s), address, e-mail address, telephone number,
   c. dissertation completion date,
   d. degree-granting school, and
   e. the names of the dissertation chair and the dissertation committee members.
2) A dissertation summary/extended abstract of at most five letter or A4 pages (not including references) in standard format (1'' margins all around, double-spaced, 12 point font). The dissertation summary must focus on explaining the main contributions of the research and the relevance and importance of these contributions. Please make sure that there is no author-identifying information in the summary.
3) The complete dissertation without any author-identifying information.

Please use filenames reflecting the author's last name and short title of the dissertation (e.g., "Duflo - Three Essays in Empirical Development Economics"). All documents should be sent as separate PDF files in a single email to Morvarid Rahmani (morvarid.rahmani@scheller.gatech.edu) with the subject heading "2021 INFORMS TIMES Dissertation Award".
