

POMS College of Behavior in Operations Management Mini Conference

We are excited to announce that the POMS College of Behavior in Operations Management (CBOM) mini - conference will take place in Minneapolis on April 23, 2020, immediately preceding the 2020 POMS Annual Conference in Minneapolis. The theme for the mini-conference this year will be “Behavioral operations in the age of AI and algorithms”.

The mini-conference will feature insightful panel discussion from leading researchers in the field including

- Kay-Yut Chen, University of Texas at Arlington
- Tony Cui, University of Minnesota
- Karen Donohue, University of Minnesota
- Anton Ovchinnikov, Queens University
- Ozalp Ozer, University of Texas at Dallas
- Enno Siemsen, University of Wisconsin-Madison and presentations of the finalists of CBOM Junior Scholar Paper competition. For the paper competition, we welcome papers in the broader domain of behavioral operations management. Please see the attachment for complete details on eligibility criteria, selection procedure and submission requirements. The submission deadline for the Junior Scholar Paper competition is Feb.18, 2020.

We look forward to seeing you in Minneapolis in April! Thank you!

President: Nikolay Osadchiy, Emory University

VP: Shan Li, Baruch College, City University of New York

Secretary: Blair Flicker, University of South Carolina

Treasurer: Eirini Spiliotopoulou, Tilburg University