JOB TITLE: Assistant Professor, if the candidate has a Ph.D.; Instructor if ABD
APPOINTMENT START DATE: Appointment begins August 19, 2019; classes begin August 26, 2019
APPLICATION REVIEW DATE: Review of complete applications will begin on June 10, 2019, and continue until the position is filled
JOB DESCRIPTION: Full-Time, 9-month, non-tenure track position in the Department of Management Studies in the area of Production and Operations Management (POM).

ABOUT THE POSITION:

The Labovitz School of Business and Economics (LSBE) at the University of Minnesota Duluth (UMD) invites applications for a full-time, non-tenure track, one-year term faculty position in the area of Production and Operations Management (POM) at the Instructor/Assistant Professor level beginning Fall 2019. The individual hired for this position will be responsible for teaching required and elective courses and service. The school's current teaching need is in the area of POM at the undergraduate level. Currently, the teaching load is seven sections (21 credits) per academic year. Preference will be given to candidates who can also teach courses in Management Information Systems (MIS) and Business Analytics. Responsibilities also include advising undergraduate students, working with student organizations and engaging in service activities with colleagues, the department, School, campus, community and professional organizations.

ABOUT LSBE:

The Labovitz School of Business and Economics (LSBE) is AACSB-International accredited and housed in a state-of-the-art building. Approximately 2,000 undergraduate and graduate students are currently enrolled in the school's programs. There are currently 50+ full-time faculty members in four academic departments: Accounting and Finance, Economics, Management Studies, and Marketing. The School offers the Bachelor of Accounting, Bachelor of Business Administration, Bachelor of Arts in Economics, and MBA degrees. Regional outreach is accomplished primarily through activities of the Center for Economic Development and the Bureau of Business and Economic Research. Additional information about the School and its programs can be found at LSBE's website at <http://lsbe.d.umn.edu>.

Duluth, with a population of approximately 85,000 people, is located at the head of beautiful Lake Superior.
