Call for 2022 iFORM (Interface of Finance, Operations and Risk Management) SIG Best Paper Award

Dear Colleagues:

I am writing to request your nominations for the 2022 iFORM (Interface of Finance, Operations and Risk Management) SIG (Special Interest Group) Best Paper Award.

This year's iFORM Best Paper Award Committee consists of:

- John Birge, University of Chicago, Booth School of Business
- Jiri Chod, Boston College, Carroll School of Management
- Vishal Gaur, Cornell University, S.C. Johnson Graduate School of Management
- Vinod Singhal, Georgia Tech, Scheller College of Business

The 2022 iFORM Best Paper Award will consider publications in all INFORMS journals with the publication dates of 2019, 2020 and 2021 (not as "articles in advance"). Self-nominations are welcome.

To nominate a paper, please send an email to msom.iform2023@gmail.com, with the paper's title, journal, and year of publication by Friday, September 23, 2022. Optional nomination letters and/or statements are welcome but not required.

The winning paper will be announced at the MSOM business meeting of the 2022 INFORMS Conference. The authors of the Best Paper will receive a $500 cash award and a commemorative plaque or certificate.

Thank you in advance for sending your nominations.
